

Post-doctoral Fellow at the Emerson Centre of Excellence for Sustainability Studies at TERI SAS

Last Date to Apply: August 25, 2024

Advertisement No: TSAS/ACAD/2024/13

Number of Posts: 01

Position Title: Post-doctoral Fellow

Nature of the Research Engagement: To work on the project, IPSA-Kumbh – Mapping impact of floating population on sewerage infrastructure and river water quality during Maha Kumbh 2025 at Prayagraj under Namami Gange Programme. The project partners are TERI School of Advanced Studies, IIT Roorkee, IIT-BHU and Hokkaido University. To also actively contribute to research activities of the Centre in the domain of sustainability with emphasis on aspects such as net zero educational campuses, stakeholder engagement and urban planning, quantitative methods, and life cycle/carbon footprint assessments and circular economy.

Duration of the Position: 12 Months and expected to be extended further

Monthly Salary: 80,000 + HRA (27%)

Qualifications and Experience: Ph.D. in disciplines associated with urban planning, sustainability, resource efficiency, circular economy, life cycle assessment, and net zero buildings. Experience of working on related research projects, developing research proposals, undertaking field studies, writing research project reports and research publications, and organising research outreach activities. Willing to be stationed at Delhi and to travel to Prayagraj and across India, as and when required.

Location of the Emerson Centre for Sustainability Studies: New Delhi

Working Place: New Delhi and Prayagraj

Apply: Interested candidates may forward their application with a resume before 25th August, 2024 to Ms Sonika Goyal via email: sonika.goyal@terisas.ac.in

For any information about the project, the candidate may contact the Centre's Director at the following address/phone:

Name: Prof. Shaleen Singhal

Address: Emerson Centre of Excellence for Sustainability Studies

TERI School of Advanced Studies, Plot No. 10, Institutional Area, Vasant Kunj, New Delhi- 110070 Phone No: 011 2612 2222

Junior Research Fellow at the Emerson Centre of Excellence for Sustainability Studies at TERI SAS

Last Date of Apply: August 25, 2024

Advertisement No: TSAS/ACAD/2024/14

Number of Posts: 01

Position Title: Junior Research Fellow

Nature of the Research Engagement: To work on the project, IPSA-Kumbh – Mapping impact of floating population on sewerage infrastructure and river water quality during Maha Kumbh 2025 at Prayagraj under Namami Gange Programme. The project partners are TERI School of Advanced Studies, IIT Roorkee, IIT-BHU and Hokkaido University. To also actively contribute to research activities of the Centre in the domain of sustainability with emphasis on aspects such as net zero educational campuses, stakeholder engagement and urban planning, quantitative methods, and life cycle/carbon footprint assessments and circular economy.

Duration of the Position: 12 Months and expected to be extended further

Monthly Salary: Rs.37,000 + HRA (27%)

Qualifications and Experience: Post-graduate in disciplines associated with urban planning, environmental science, sustainability, resource management, geography, economics, life cycle assessment, and net zero buildings. Experience of working on related research projects, undertaking field studies, writing research project reports and research publications, and organising research outreach activities.

Willing to be stationed at Delhi and to travel to Prayagraj and across India, as and when required.

Location of the Emerson Centre for Sustainability Studies: New Delhi

Working Place: New Delhi and Prayagraj

Apply: Interested candidates may forward their application with a resume before 25th August, 2024 to Ms Sonika Goyal via email: sonika.goyal@terisas.ac.in

For any information about the project, the candidate may contact the Centre's Director at the following address/phone:

Name: Prof. Shaleen Singhal

Address: Emerson Centre of Excellence for Sustainability Studies

TERI School of Advanced Studies, Plot No. 10, Institutional Area, Vasant Kunj, New Delhi- 110070 Phone No: 011 2612 2222